COMMENTARY:Million Doll

(Always Capitalized)

My Board is where the MillionDollBoard DM editor will occasionally explain the terminology that appears in Million Doll. There are extremely subjective definitions, as at times they will differ from the real definition. We recommend that taking these definitions as broadly.

[1:1] ♦ Million Doll Wota Terminology ♦

1: Ramen Festival

It is common for idols to perform at real life ramen festivals as well.

When more and more people start coming for the idols, the waiting times get longer and the idols can perform for them in the meantime. So, there are many benefits for the event management as well.

It's an exciting event where you can taste ramen from around the country, and watch idols too!

2: OAD

OAD stands for "Over Action Dolphin".

It's a wotagei where you twist your body and shout "Uryaail" (or similar) as you clap your hands next to your face, left and right to the beat. This is generally done during the non-chorus verses of the song.

It works best when you make large motions, as the name would imply.
